

CRISTIAN LARROULET VIGNAU

Commercial Engineer of the Pontificia Universidad Católica de Chile and Master in Economics of the University of Chicago.

He has long experience in the design and implementation of public policies. He was Head of Staff of Minister of Finance Hernán Büchi and was Executive Director of the Instituto Libertad y Desarrollo (LYD) for 20 years.

He was Minister of The Presidency of Chile in the Government of President Sebastián Piñera.

He was Dean of the Economics and Business Faculty at the Universidad del Desarrollo. He is currently a member of the Mont Pelerin Society and of the Social Science Academy, Politics and Moral, of the Chile Institute.

He has written different academic publications in Chile and abroad. He is the author of the books "Economics", published by McGraw-Hill, and "Chile, Camino al Desarrollo", published on 2012 by Aguilar/El Mercurio.

In May 2010 he was distinguished with the Professional Achievement Award 2010 by the University of Chicago, being the only Latin-American which has received this recognition, granted since 1967.