

Maribel Guerrero

Professor of Entrepreneurship at Newcastle Business School (Northumbria University, UK), and at the School of Business and Economics (Universidad del Desarrollo, Chile). Previously, she had a researcher position at the Basque Institute of Competitiveness (Spain) as well as at the Deusto Business School (Spain). She holds a PhD and Master's degrees in Business Economics by the Department of Business at the Autonomous University of Barcelona (Spain).

Her main research interests are focused on the determinants and the impacts of (intra)entrepreneurship on socio-economic development, as well as on the configuration/evolution of entrepreneurship and innovation ecosystems; currently with an emphasis on emerging economies. She has published several scholarly international publications in academic journals (Small Business Economics, Research Policy, Journal of Small Business Management, Journal of Technology Transfer, Technological Forecasting and Social Change) and editorial books.

She had participated and led international projects sponsored by Santander Bank, Global Entrepreneurship Research Association (GEM), Spanish Ministries (Education and Industry), Regional Spanish Governments (Catalonia and Basque Country), the Mexican Council of Science and Technology (CONACYT), and others. She founded/led the Spanish Observatory of University Entrepreneurship sponsored by Santander Bank as well as led the Basque Country GEM team. She has collaborated in the HEInnovate platform sponsored by the OCDE/European Commission. She has the research accreditation of the Mexican Council of Science and Technology (CONACYT, Category III), and the fellowship of the UK Higher Education Association.

She is member of the technical direction of the Spanish and Chilean Global Entrepreneurship Monitor (GEM) teams, the Spanish Panel Studies of Entrepreneurial Dynamics (PSED) team, and the Global University Entrepreneurial Spirit Students' Survey (GUESSS). She also participates in the board of the Journal of Technology Transfer \(Associate Editor\), Technology Forecasting and Social Change \(Advisory Board\), and The Small Business Economics \(Reviewer Board\). Moreover, she is member of the Academy of Management (AoM) Entrepreneurship Division (current treasurer), Strategic Management Society, Technology Transfer Society, and among others.
